Every Access-i-certified place is audited by an accredited consultancy firm specialising in accessibility and has an information sheet on the access-i.be platform.

TO WHOM IS ACCESS-I INTENDED?

Access-i is aimed at seven groups of people with specific needs

-  People in wheelchairs
-  People with walking difficulties
-  Blind people
-  People with visual impairment
-  Deaf people
-  People with hearing impairment
-  People with comprehension difficulties

ACCESSIBILITY BENEFITS EVERYONE!

This information is also useful for families, pregnant women and people who have had an accident.

To reach as many people as possible, some content is translated into Easy-to-Read and sign languages of French-speaking and Dutch-speaking Belgium.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- 1 On access-i.be, I choose the category and sub-category of my choice

- 2 I click on the information sheet of my choice

- 3 I select my specific need

- 4 I find out about the accessibility level, the strengths, points of attention and photos of the facilities

- 5 I plan my outing in complete safety

3 LEVELS OF ACCESSIBILITY

Accessible!

I can come on my own. The venue is fully accessible without assistance.

Accessible with occasional help!

I'm coming with a companion. Any difficulties can be overcome with the help of a companion.

Please note: specific considerations!

You may encounter difficulties on site. Please check the points of attention so that you can prepare accordingly.
